In 1989 the Indiana Chapter of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese established an honorary for outstanding Spanish teachers. To be eligible for induction to the honorary a teacher must meet the following criteria:

1. Be a member of the state and national AATSP for at least the past three years prior to induction
2. Teach Spanish for at least 10 years (90% of the teaching must have been done at the elementary or secondary level);
3. Be a current member of the Indiana AATSP and IFLTA;
4. Demonstrate continued professional development by having attended national, regional, or local foreign language conferences and by fulfilling ONE or more of the following:
 - a) making one or more presentations at a foreign language conference or demonstrating professional growth at the local or regional level OR
 - b) serving as an officer or committee member of foreign language organization at the local or regional level OR
 - c) publishing supplementary educational materials.

The following items must be submitted on your behalf by October 1, 2009. This information will be given to a selection committee for evaluation.

1. Information sheet (enclosed with this letter).
2. Curriculum Vitae which includes the names and dates of conferences attended in the last three years and other professional involvement or contributions during your career.
3. A letter of recommendation from an administrator in your school system.

You and your school corporation will be notified of your acceptance by early Fall. There will be a reception for new honorary members during the Fall meeting of the IAATSP at the IFLTA Conference in Indianapolis. A press release will be available for your local newspaper after the ceremony in the fall.
